

Non-Refundable Payment Policy for Certification Exams and Materials

Please read this policy carefully before making any purchases related to certification exams or course materials.

As a provider of certification and training services, AAPSCM® delivers digital and service-based products, including but not limited to: access to certification exams, digital course material guides, practice questions, secure exam platforms, and associated academic or professional resources.

Due to the immediate access and consumable nature of these services, all payments made for exams, study materials, and related services are final and non-refundable. This policy is in place to protect the integrity of our certification processes, digital intellectual property, and service delivery infrastructure.

By proceeding with payment, you acknowledge and agree that:

- You have verified the certification or course information prior to purchase.
- You understand that once access to course materials or exams is granted, the service is considered delivered.
- No refunds, partial or full, will be issued under any circumstances, including but not limited to:
  - Change of mind
  - Failure to complete the exam
  - Incompatibility with your schedule or technology
  - Misunderstanding of program content or certification requirements

If you have any questions or need clarification prior to payment, please contact info@aapscm.org or call us at +1-(833) 524-2846. We encourage all prospective candidates to review course details, certification requirements, and platform access instructions carefully before submitting payment.

AAPSCM® reserves the right to amend this policy at any time. All updates will be posted on this page.
